

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQS)

Q: What is the SWDC Community Center?

A: The SWDC Community Center is a planned 6,000 SF space that will serve as a vibrant, central hub for the Southwest and Navy Yard neighborhoods that provides an inclusive space for a wide range of services and activities that foster personal and collective growth.

Q: Where will the SWDC Community Center be built?

A: The SWDC Community Center will be located on the first and second floor of 375 M Street SW, a to-be-built multifamily apartment building next to the Waterfront Metro station.

Q: When will the SWDC Community Center open?

A: The earliest the Community Center will be operational is 2027. The exact timing will depend on when 375 M Street SW receives all its approvals and starts construction.

Q: What kind of programming will be at the SWDC Community Center?

A: The programming has not been determined yet. We are gathering feedback from the community so we can get a better sense of what programming should be offered at the Center.

Q: Who will operate the SWDC Community Center?

A: The SWDC Community Center is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. The Center will likely be staffed with paid employees but volunteers will also be accepted and appreciated.

Q: How can I get involved?

A: Please add your contact information to our sign-up sheet at the farmers market booth or sign up on our website swdccc.org. We will be in touch regarding volunteer opportunities leading up to the opening of the Center and once it is operational.

Q: How can I make a financial contribution to the SWDC Community Center?

A: You can donate by visiting our website swdccc.org. Since the SWDC Community Center is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, your contribution will be tax-deductible.
